

SuppM 2: Advanced Ancient Language: Hebrew / Greek / Latin
Identification number	Workload	Credit Points	Term of studying	Frequency of occurrence	Duration
	180	6	2./3.	every semester	1 or 2 semester(s)
1	Type of lessons	Contact times	Self-study times	Intended group size
	a) Language course/ exercise b) Written exam	30 h	60 h 90 min	15 students
2	Aims of the module and acquired skills The module provides advanced knowledge in one of the three classical languages that became the foundation of the European civilisation. Students acquire one of the key qualifications to a profound understanding of the European cultural history. The module builds on the obligatory module “Ancient Language” (6 CP); it gives the students the possibility to receive a qualifying degree (Hebraicum, Latinum, Graecum) which is achieved after the completion of 12 CP. The module enable the student to work with sources relevant for the history of cultural contacts between Eastern and Western Europe.
3	Contents of the module Reading original texts, the courses train the students in grammar and lexis of the language and offer an insight into the life and world view of the society the texts originate from. Depending on offer, the module can be combined with a module in palaeography of the chosen language (cf. SM 1a “Essential Philological Skills”).
4	Teaching/Learning methods Language course, grammar and translation exercises
5	Requirements for participation none
6	Type of module examinations Written exam/s
7	Requisites for the allocation of credits active participation, passed written exam
8	Compatibility with other Curricula The courses in Hebrew, Greek and Latin are also attended by students of classical Studies

9	Significance of the module mark for the overall grade 0 %
10	Module coordinator Professor for Slavonic Literature
11	Additional information