2	Aims of the module and acquired skills The participating faculties are planning to organize field trips related to the key topics of the DDP. Destinations and topics vary. In 2015, we are offering joined trips to “Russian Rome” (a cooperation between UzK and HSE) and “Polish Paris” (a cooperation between UzK and UW). Students prepare a reader containing their own texts and scholarly introductions into a broad variety of aspects relating to the visited sites and the topic of the trip. The major part of the workload is carried out during the preparation. The trips typically include visits to museums, archives, libraries as well as to historical sites related to cultural contacts between Eastern, Central and Western Europe. Students see how cultural history is preserved and presented in museums. The trip can also include a visit to cultural institutions or the collection of linguistic data.
3	Contents of the module Content and destination vary and will be announced at least three months before the start of the semester. Typical destinations are places of the Russian and Polish emigration, archives and cultural sites in Russia and Poland. Key elements independent from the location are the preparation of a reader, a joint web seminar with participants of two participating institution and brief presentations during the trip (wherever possible at the historical sites).
4	Teaching/Learning methods preparation of a reader (in teamwork), short presentation, discussions
