

SuppM 9: German / Romance / English / Classical Philology
Identification number	Workload	Credit Points	Term of studying	Frequency of occurrence	Duration
	180	6	1.-3.	each semester	1 semester
1	Type of lessons	Contact times	Self-study times	Intended group size
	a) Lecture	30 h	60 h	60 students
	b) Seminar	30 h	60 h	30 students
2	Aims of the module and acquired skills The module is intended in particular (but not exclusively) for students from HSE and UW at UzK. The visiting students are given the opportunity to choose from the broad offer of philological lectures and seminars at the Faculty of Humanities. Students get an insight into current research in a Western language philology. They become familiar with the traditions and methods of German / Romance / English or Classical philology. This experience contributes to their understanding of East-Western cultural contacts and, in particular, of the differences between Eastern and Western traditions of philological scholarship.
3	Contents of the module From the broad offer of courses on German / Romance / English or Classical philology at the UzK every term a small selection of courses is made eligible in this module. The organisers of the DDP will try to make accessible furthers modules upon the request of DDP students.
4	Teaching/Learning methods lecture / seminar
5	Requirements for participation: The language requirements are defined for every course in the module, depending on the specification of the teacher.
6	Type of module examinations oral exam
7	Requisites for the allocation of credits active participation, presentation (15 minutes), passed oral exam
8	Compatibility with other Curricula The seminars and lectures are part of the MA programs in German, Romance, English and Classical Philology and Comparative Literature.

9	Significance of the module mark for the overall grade 0 %
10	Module coordinator Professor of Slavonic Literature
11	Additional information